Title of the Practice:

TOEIC (TEST OF ENGLISH FOR INTERNATIONAL COMMUNICATION)

Objectives:

- Ø To develop communicative skills among the students
- Ø To improve their LSRW skills in English Language.
- Ø To expose them to the accents of English language.
- Ø To equip them in the mastery of English language to match the international standard of communicative skills.

The Context:

As English proves to be the lingua factor and a universal language, it creates a great demand among the students who learn English as a foreign/ second language. The British and American accents of English are considered to be much popular among the accents of English language. There are international level tests on language like TOEFL (Test of English as Foreign Language) and TOEIC (Test of English for International Communication) that are conducted for student aspirants who aim for achieving international standard in their communicative skills and for their higher studies at foreign countries and jobs at international forum. At present, our college has provided a splendid opportunity for the students to experience TOEIC training on campus to enhance their communicative skills at international standard and to gain acknowledgement for the same by providing them international certificate from ETS (Educational Testing Service) from the US, after an international level assessment test in TOEIC ITP (TOEIC Institutional Testing Program). As more than 14,000 MNCs accept TOEIC Certificate, the programme is very much beneficial for the students who aspire to be successful employees at the international job market in future.

The Practice:

TOEIC training programme is offered for all students irrespective of their major and year. In the present academic year, the student beneficiaries are first and second year UG students and first year PG students from all majors. A total number of 39 students volunteered to be trainees for the TOEIC training programme which was held on all Saturdays from 10.00 am to 3.00 pm at the college premises for a total number of 40 hours training programme. The final assessment test was conducted on 18.04.18.

The students were motivated to gain confidence in their communicative skills to cope-up with the international standard and their language-oriented professional skills have improved through the training programme.

Benefits to the Students:

- Ø To speak fluently and confidently in English.
- Ø To listen and read better in the language.
- Ø To increase the flare for written communication.
- Ø To face the job market with confidence.
- Ø To improve their language skills to the international standards.

Conclusion:

TOEIC training programme has not only created awareness on the nuances of English communicative skills at the international forum but has also strengthened the confidence and love for communicative skills among the student beneficiaries to face any English language-oriented situations in future.
