ACTION TAKEN REPORT

ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE AND ANTI-RAGGING SQUAD

1. Conducted extensive awareness campaigns and orientations programs for all the students, highlighting the negative consequences of ragging and the importance of respecting fellow students.
2. In areas where ragging incidents are more prone to occur, such as canteens, and common gathering places, the presence of security staff and college authorities were increased and frequent enquires were made to make sure that no ragging activities were carried out.
3. Bus marshals or supervisors travelled on the buses with the students to maintain order and safety.
